

An Evening of Christmas Music

Our annual “Evening of Christmas Music” is an opportunity for students to perform their Christmas music at a local retirement home. Miss Jessica prepares a program of Christmas music to perform and invites any students who want to join her to come and play their Christmas music as well. This event is a wonderful way to provide students with an opportunity to perform their Christmas songs while also serving our elders during the holiday season.

